Report:

RBVRR Women's College of Pharmacy conducted coaching classes for competitive exams for final year B. Pharm students. The classes are specially designed for B Pharm IV year with the aim of providing the concepts of the subjects and tips for the preparation for NIPER, GPAT and PGCET. Due to pandemic COVID -19 online classes and exams were conducted for students.

Outcomes:

- To perform well in competitive examination to get good ranks.
- To prepare the students in acquiring the skills to qualify the exam.
- To orient the students in their preparation as per type of competitive exam.

The crash course is especially designed for the students who are going to be enrolled in the NIPER/GPAT/PGCET competitive exam.

The training session includes the modules on

- Entire syllabus of the competitive exams
- Mock tests for students covering individual subjects and all subjects along with regular schedule of classes

Students expressed their satisfaction and expressed need of more such programs. About 65 students participated in the training session.

Report:

RBVRR Women's College of Pharmacy organized a session on "Opportunities for Hospital Pharmacists" on 12th September 2019. The session featured Dr. K.S. Ratnakar, Director of Global Hospitals, who shared insights into the roles and career prospects for pharmacists in hospital settings. The speaker highlighted the diverse career paths available to hospital pharmacists. He discussed opportunities for specialization in areas such as clinical pharmacy, critical care, oncology, infectious diseases, and ambulatory care. Dr. Ratnakar also emphasized the importance of continuous learning and professional development in advancing one's career in hospital pharmacy. Dr. Ratnakar provided an overview of the role of pharmacists in hospitals, emphasizing their importance in ensuring safe and effective medication use. He discussed the various responsibilities of hospital pharmacists, including medication dispensing, patient counselling, medication reconciliation, and participation in clinical rounds. The session on "Opportunities for Hospital Pharmacists" by Dr. K.S. Ratnakar provided valuable insights into the roles, responsibilities, and career prospects for pharmacists in hospital settings. It underscored the importance of hospital pharmacists in ensuring safe and effective medication use and highlighted the diverse career paths available in this field. Such sessions are instrumental in guiding pharmacy students towards rewarding career opportunities and preparing them for the challenges of professional practice in healthcare settings.

Report:

RBVRR Women's College of Pharmacy organized a seminar titled "The Pharmaceutical Industry: Career Opportunities for Pharmacists" on 3rd October 2019. The seminar aimed to provide insights into the various career paths available in the pharmaceutical industry for pharmacy graduates. Dr. V. Kishan, a renowned Professor from Kakatiya University, delivered the session. Dr. Kishan provided an overview of the pharmaceutical industry, highlighting its significance in healthcare and the economy. He discussed the different sectors within the industry, including research and development, manufacturing, quality control, regulatory affairs, and marketing. The speaker emphasized the important roles pharmacists play in the pharmaceutical sector. He discussed how pharmacists contribute to drug development, ensuring quality control, regulatory compliance, and providing pharmaceutical care to patients. Dr. Kishan elaborated on the diverse career opportunities available to pharmacists in the pharmaceutical industry. He discussed roles such as drug safety specialists, clinical research associates, regulatory affairs professionals, pharmaceutical sales representatives, and pharmacovigilance experts. The speaker highlighted the skills and qualifications required to excel in various roles within the pharmaceutical industry. He emphasized the importance of continuous learning, adaptability, communication skills, and staying updated with industry trends and regulations. The seminar on "The Pharmaceutical Industry: Career Opportunities for Pharmacists" by Dr. V. Kishan provided valuable insights into the diverse career paths available in the pharmaceutical sector. It equipped students with the knowledge and awareness necessary to make informed career decisions and pursue opportunities in the industry.
